About this property

We would like to offer a plot of 1,119 sq.m for sale. is suitable for the construction of a residential building or private house. The large plot is situated on a concrete road with quiet location in the Xaisettha district of Vientiane capital, near the many facilities and office such as bank, school, market and restaurant. Furthermore, a commercial-residential building with beautiful design can be built on that investment land. The property is surrounded by good environment. There is electricity and water in close proximity to the property. The well-developed city is an important administrative center and offering the necessary public institutions, services and a variety of places for recreation or entertainment.
